

I believe that Satellite radio should be given a chance to grow into new areas. Limiting this new frontier of radio will only limit consumer choice in how they receive their information, which is a frightening thought. Please don't allow established radio stations and their representatives take away choices that the consumers have yet to fully decide they even want. Thank you.